The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution

Origins

The largest of all American patriotic societies for men, the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution traces its origins to the Sons of Revolutionary Sires which was organized at San Francisco, California on July 4, 1876. It assumed its present name at a meeting at Fraunces Tavern, New York City, in 1889, and was chartered by Act of Congress on June 9, 1906. Membership is open to any man over 18 years of age, a citizen of good repute in the community, and the lineal descendant of an ancestor "who was at all times unfailing in loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence," either as a member of the armed forces or militia, as a signer of the Declaration of Independence, as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, as a member of the Continental Congress, or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

Distinguished Members

President Ford and Vice President Rockefeller are members of the SAR. Other presidents who have been members include Presidents Johnson, Eisenhower, Truman, Hoover, Coolidge, Harding, Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, McKinley and Hayes. Sir Winston Churchill was a member.

Members in the 94th Congress include Senators Allen (Ala.), Fannin (Ariz.), Goldwater (Ariz.), Chiles (Florida), Nunn (Ga.), Talmadge (Ga.), Mathias (Md.), Wyman (N.H.), Burdick (N.D.), Taft (Ohio), Bartlett (Okla.), Schweiker (Pa.), Thurmond (S.C.), Brock (Tenn.), Tower (Tex.), and Byrd (Va.) Also, Representatives Nichols (Ala.), Rhodes (Ariz.), Goldwater (Cal.), Wilson (Cal.), Bennett (Fla.), Haley (Fla.), Sikes (Fla.), Natcher (Ky.), Gude (Md.), Kemp (N.Y.), Ashbrook (Ohio), Murtha (Pa.), Quillen (Tenn.) and Slack (W.V.).

Chapters

Chapters of the SAR exist in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Switzerland and France. (In France, members of the SAR there saw to it that throughout WWII occupation by the Germans, the American flag flew over Gen. Lafayette's grave.) A group is being formed in Spain based on ancestors who served the American cause under DeGalvez.

Officers

The present President of the SAR is Dr. M. Graham Clark, president of the School of the Ozarks. Treasurer General is Ralph M. Pabst, a retired publisher and currently a director of several corporations. Chancellor General is Tullius Brady, a Mississippi attorney and former member of that state's legislature. Dr. R. Warburton Miller, a clinical psychologist, is Secretary General.

1974 Congress

Receiving the SAR Gold Good Citizenship Medal, and speaking at the 1974 SAR Congress in Baltimore were Secretary of the Navy J. William Middendorf and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, the latter a member of the SAR. Since that time, the Gold Good Citizenship Medal has been awarded in special ceremonies to Gen. Robert E. Cushman and General Jimmy Doolittle.

Headquarters

The Headquarters of the National Society, SAR, is located at 2412 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. The Executive Secretary is Warren S. Woodward.

Foreign "Entanglements"

The SAR Vice President for the Foreign (European) District is Comte. Patrice de Rochambeau. President of the Society in France is Comte. Rene de Chambrun. President of the Society in Switzerland is Ambassador Shelby C. Davis. (former ambassador)

The 85th Congress, 1975

The occasion for the General's speech is the 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Banquet of 1 July 1975. Black-tie attire, white jackets. Decorations are customary.

Per telecon with the Executive Secretary, Warren Woodward, of 27 June, the topic and impact of the presentation are the option of Gen. Walters. It can be as controversial as he wishes, "as long as it is conservative," according to Woodward.

The National Society of the
Sons of the American Revolution

Origins

The largest of all American patriotic societies for men, the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution traces its origins to the Sons of Revolutionary Sires which was organized at San Francisco, California on July 4, 1876. It assumed its present name at a meeting at Fraunces Tavern, New York City, in 1889, and was chartered by Act of Congress on June 9, 1906. Membership is open to any man over 18 years of age, a citizen of good repute in the community, and the lineal descendant of an ancestor "who was at all times unfailing in loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence," either as a member of the armed forces or militia, as a signer of the Declaration of Independence, as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, as a member of the Continental Congress, or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

Distinguished Members

President Ford and Vice President Rockefeller are members of the SAR. Other presidents who have been members include Presidents Johnson, Eisenhower, Truman, Hoover, Coolidge, Harding, Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, McKinley and Hayes. Sir Winston Churchill was a member.

Members in the 94th Congress include Senators Allen (Ala.), Fannin (Ariz.), Goldwater (Ariz.), Chiles (Florida), Nunn (Ga.), Talmadge (Ga.), Mathias (Md.), Wyman (N.H.), Burdick (N.D.), Taft (Ohio), Bartlett (Okla.), Schweiker (Pa.), Thurmond (S.C.), Brock (Tenn.), Tower (Tex.), and Byrd (Va.) Also, Representatives Nichols (Ala.), Rhodes (Ariz.), Goldwater (Cal.), Wilson (Cal.), Bennett (Fla.), Haley (Fla.), Sikes (Fla.), Natcher (Ky.), Gude (Md.), Kemp (N.Y.), Ashbrook (Ohio), Murtha (Pa.), Quillen (Tenn.) and Slack (W.V.).

Chapters

Chapters of the SAR exist in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Switzerland and France. (In France, members of the SAR there saw to it that throughout WWII occupation by the Germans, the American flag flew over Gen. Lafayette's grave.) A group is being formed in Spain based on ancestors who served the American cause under DeGalvez.

Officers

The present President of the SAR is Dr. M. Graham Clark, president of the School of the Ozarks. Treasurer General is Ralph M. Pabst, a retired publisher

and currently a director of several corporations. Chancellor General is Tullius Brady, a Mississippi attorney and former member of that state's legislature. Dr. R. Warburton Miller, a clinical psychologist, is Secretary General.

1974 Congress

Receiving the SAR Gold Good Citizenship Medal, and speaking at the 1974 SAR Congress in Baltimore were Secretary of the Navy J. William Middendorf and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, the latter a member of the SAR. Since that time, the Gold Good Citizenship Medal has been awarded in special ceremonies to Gen. Robert E. Cushman and General Jimmy Doolittle.

Headquarters

The Headquarters of the National Society, SAR, is located at 2412 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. The Executive Secretary is Warren S. Woodward.

Foreign "Entanglements"

The SAR Vice President for the Foreign (European) District is Comte. Patrice de Rochambeau. President of the Society in France is Comte. Rene de Chambrun. President of the Society in Switzerland is Ambassador Shelby C. Davis.

1975 Congress

The 85th Congress of the SAR will be held at the Copely Plaza, Boston, June 28th through Wednesday, July 2. The July 2 event for which the invitation is extended is the President General's Banquet. It is "black tie," with white jackets recommended. Decorations are customarily worn.

White, J. M.

The 85th Congress, 1975

The occasion for the General's speech is the 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Banquet of 1 July 1975. Black-tie attire, white jackets. Decorations are customary.

Per telecon with the Executive Secretary, Warren Woodward, of 27 June, the topic and impact of the presentation are the option of Gen. Walters. It can be as controversial as he wishes, "as long as it is conservative," according to Woodward.

Contact: The Boston Field Office can contact Mr. Woodward at Suite 431, Copely Plaza, Boston, MA 02116.

Dear Mr. Wright:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of 22 July. The Chinese tactician to whom I referred in my speech before the Sons of the American Revolution was Sun Tzu and I am attaching for your interest a list of his "Meditations" taken from his book, The Art of War, published by the Oxford University Press.

Faithfully yours,

Vernon A. Walters

CHINESE PHILOSOPHER AND WRITER

ON WAR 500 BC

1. Discredit everything that is good in your opponent's country.
2. Involve the representatives of the ruling classes of your opponents in criminal enterprises.
3. Damage their reputations and when the time is right, deliver them up to the scorn of their fellow citizens.
4. Use the collaboration of the most vile and abominable creatures.
5. Disorganize by every possible means the activity of their governments.
6. Spread discord and quarrels among the citizens of a hostile country.
7. Agitate the young against the old.
8. Heap ridicule on the traditions of your opponents.
9. Disturb with every resource at your command the supplies of the enemy Army.
10. Weaken the will of the enemy's soldiers with songs and sensual music.
11. Send prostitutes to accomplish the work of destruction.
12. Be generous in your promises and with your gifts to buy information. Do not spare money; money spent in this way brings in rich profits.
13. Infiltrate your spies everywhere.

All summarized in this maxim: "The acme of excellence is not the winning of a hundred victories in a hundred battles but rather to subdue the Armies of the enemy without fighting."

Dear General Walters:

At the National Congress of the Sons of the American Revolution in Boston earlier this month, I had the privilege of hearing your speech to that group, which I enjoyed very much.

I was much impressed by your reference to an early Chinese tactician whose name I did not catch (Sun Su?), who laid down certain principles of war which were subsequently adopted by the Russians.

If it is not too much trouble I would like to have the benefit of knowing what these principles are, and would appreciate it if they are available, to have them sent me, or if not, a reference where they might be found.

Sincerely,

Carroll Wright,
Vice President General
